High Point Market always acts as a launchpad for new rug designs and collections. When paired with its keynote series and events programme, this event promises to satisfy visiting rug buyers on the look out for inspiring flooring solutions for the coming year. Entertainment is taken seriously too—this market, performances by the bands Bell Biv DeVoe and Funk You will take place on Center Stage at 7pm on Friday and Saturday night.

The young rug company English Village Lane—founded in 2022 by Angie Burge in Birmingham, Alabama—will introduce a new designer colour pom box tool, so their clients have the ability to custom colour their own rugs, with their own customers, at their own computers, enabling them to upload new custom rugs into their presentations and edit in real time.

Nourison Home will offer vintage inspired rugs that embody the spirit of a treasured heirloom in both hand-knotted and power-loomed qualities while Southwest Looms will showcase its hand-knotted Arts & Crafts collection. The Art Ginkgo rug, an beautiful room accent with distinctive ginkgo leaves arranged on stylised geometric stems, will be on show at the Stickley Furniture Showroom.

On the natural fibre front, LR Home's collections—Pampas, Savannah and Prairie—blend jute and New Zealand wool to great
